MUSEO NAZIONALE DI ACCRA - GHANA

FORNITURA DI MATERIALI ED ATTREZZATURE

The National Museum of Ghana in Accra, is the largest and oldest of the museums under the administration of the Ghana Museums and Monuments Board.

The museum building was opened on 5th March, 1957 as part of Ghana's independent celebration.

Objective of the project is to enhance qualitative and quantitative capacity (particularly the methodological competences) of the GMMB as far as the protection, conservation and enhancement of Ghana's material cultural assets with a focus on Castles and Forts. Moreover the project intends to promote the active participation of the local population in the process of protection, conservation and valorisation of such material and immaterial cultural assets at where Castles and Forts are located.
